

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 27, 3 A.M.

On our fourth page this morning, therefore, the reader will find a part of the current city news.

NEWS SUBMISSIONS.

Our first two columns relate the progress they have made in their efforts to consider the best means of propagating the truths of the gospel in such a manner as to be of real service to the daughter of Secretary Seward (continued). At a Meeting at a Tennessee, the Confederate Secretary of War, Mr. Davis, has been pardoned.

The execution of Lynch, the repudiated lawyer in the trial of the Boston Massacre, was set for Nov. 1 in New York. The new attorney at law in the case, the son of James F. Johnson, was present.

The revenue from this source for October, 1865, to October 1, 1866, was Carries, $1,000,000.

Wagons, 1,000.

Street cars, 1,000.

Total amount, $2,000,000.

The estimated value of these vehicles is as follows:

Carries, $1,000,000.

Wagons, 1,000.

Street cars, 1,000.

Total amount, $2,000,000.

It would be no unfair estimate to set down the number of horses and mules that were sold at an average of $250. we have Total value, $500,000.

It is evident that there is over a half million of capital in licensed vehicles o

the city.

The suit against Trinity Church of

New York for the recovery of a tract of about three hundred acres of land in that city, is one of the largest and most complicated actions ever brought in the United States. Dr. David Hosie, of New

Albany, is one of the owners to the property;

Dr. George H. Duryea, his son, is designing the defense.

The news of the plan indicates a general reversal of the course of events.

There was a general alarm when it was known that the Emperor had issued an order to his troops to withdraw from the city.

A New THEATER.—Mr. George E.

has entire control over the building in process of erection on site of the old theater. This makes him doubly sure Mr. Fuller had been known to the people of Louisiana as a gentleman of enterprise and super-business attainments, and his management of the theater a year ago sufficed to convince every one that he has a specificity it is that of managing a theater.

He has the utter confidence of the public as a man of great ideas and bold taste and judgment. Fitted by na-nature, education, and experience for the work he has assumed, Mr. Fuller will suffice to erect a temple of the drama in magnitude, elegance, and convenience to the proper refinement of our citizens. That his success will be sustained as it deserves is, there is no room for question.

Only all the contracts for the building have been let, and should the winter not interfere, Mr. Fuller confidently expects the temple to be finished by the first of January.

The GREENLAND ASSOCIATION RAISES—

At first running of the season over the Greenland Association, a full meeting, will begin on next Thursday, Nov. 1.

We learn that the engagements already prepared for the season will surpass anything known for years on a Louisiana track. We have not space for a detailed notice this morning, further than call attention to the advertisement of several articles and inducements for the member meeting. Some of the first dishes in America will be represented.

The track itself has been greatly improved during the last few weeks, and now, to a season of surpassing brilliancy for the turf. Mr. Emmet Garvin,

Secretary of the course, has gone to Montgomery to complete arrangements with several owners of stables.

MILITARY.—In the absence of Major general Davis, the adjutant of the Department of Kenly is being administered by Major Joseph B. Collins, of the 2d

Infantry. General Davis is expected to return from Chicago on a day or two.

Postage stamps containing one of the last items in military hardware, even in those peaceful times. The average stamp is 10 cents.

Excuse CARS.—The Citizens' Association for Peasant's assistance and help men can be found in the State to take the "no-clad" oath and get as possitive as possible.

Hon. Willard Bryton, a Georgia State

Senator died.

Gen. H. C. of Chancery married a beautiful girl near Kingston, Mississippi, lived with her a few moments and vanished with his wife and her father.

A Georgia soldier in jail of the country, lives in the jail, and his printing office in the jail.

Bryton.—Mr. G. W. Wolf was received in his wallet and its contents, $800 in greenbacks, yesterday evening by some deceitful and light-fingered rogues. Mr.

Wolf was on Market street between Fourth and Fifth, and supposed that he lost it in the crowd always there on market day.

Gen. J. N. John, Captain and son, arrested for the murder of Lieut. Flanagan, were brought before Judge Mure on yesterday morning. A motion was made for their discharge, and the jury agreed to do so.
